ALVORD AND STILES

They Are Believed to Have Held Up a Man Near Cos, Sonora.

Douglas, Ariz., Jan. 29 (Special Correspondence to The Republican).—J. George Hilsinger, the El Paso banker, is in the city for a few days' visit. Mr. Hilsinger is president of the Guaranty Trust company, manager of the Juarez branch of the Banco de Mexico, and was formerly president of the International Exchange bank. He is also treasurer of the Buck Directory company. It is possible Mr. Hilsinger will be instrumental in the investing of El Paso capital in this city.

The minstrel entertainment given on Tuesday evening was very successful. On Monday evening Library hall was crowded with the largest audience ever assembled in a building in this city. The entertainment was under the leadership of Mrs. Gilland, who deserves praise for the success of the program. The singing of con songs by Mrs. J. T. Hinkle and the monologues by Luther Higby were the hits of the evening. The work of C. L. Colson and R. A. Kirk was also deserving of mention. The success of the entertainment will probably result in the launching of other ventures of the kind in the near future.

The carnival of the Dixie Carnival company under the auspices of the Germania tribe order of Red Men, is now in the city, and is a success. This company presents the best shows ever given in Douglas. On the night of the 28th inst. the Redmen gave a dance in Library hall.

Herbert P. Bowen, the assayer who was recently held up and robbed near Cos, in Sonora, is in the city. He says that he is positive that the men who held him up were Alvord and Stiles and he says the outlaws are in the vicinity of Cos now and have been there for some time. Sergeant Allison, of the Rangers, in discussing the subject today, was also positive that the outlaws were less than seventy-five miles from Douglas. He says that he and Ranger Rye and two other rangers followed the outlaws for a month in Sonora, where the rangers were aided by Officer Moreno, a Mexican.

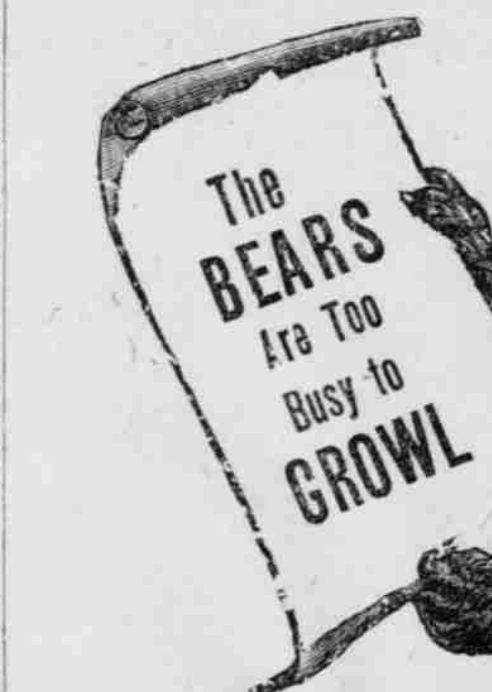

The route was from this city to Cananea, then down the San Miguel, then up the Sonora river. When they had reached the vicinity of Gies, they were called off by the orders of the governor of Sonora, who wrote that "they had already done enough." The tenor of this letter and the statement of Colonel Kosterlitzki that the outlaws had not been in Mexico since they escaped from jail, in the face of what is here regarded as the incontrovertible proof that Alvord and Stiles were seen in Mexico recently, appear to be tactics that are very dilatory.

of the trusted employees of the smelter in Bisbee who will remove to this city in the near future. These houses will be for sale, the company offering them at cost, only adding seven per cent per year for the use of the money, the tenants paying in monthly installments. The company will also at once convert Library hall into a reading room and library, therefore it has been used as a school room and hall. The room will be filled with books of every kind and with all of the leading papers and magazines, for the use of the employees of the smelter, being on the same plan as the library in Bisbee.

The office of the Postal Telegraph company will, on the first of February, be moved to the Bank of Douglas building, much to the convenience of the public, the old location, in the depot, not being central.

Walter Douglas, superintendent of the Copper Queen company in Bisbee, and J. S. Douglas, superintendent of the Moccasin Copper company and the Nacozari Railroad company, were in the city yesterday.

Five burglaries were reported to have occurred last Monday night. It is thought that the burglars belonged to a gang that followed in the wake of the Dixie Carnival company. A burglar entered Deputy Sheriff Had Kerr's room, while he was asleep and secured $4.50.

WARNING.

The party from Phoenix who took a new Stetson hat from my residence last Sunday and left an old one in its place, is known, and unless the property is restored immediately, will be prosecuted to full extent of the law. A. W. Edwards, Prescott, Ariz.

THE CATTLE OUTLOOK

It is Very Favorable for the Feeders of This Valley.

One of the best known feeders in the valley has this to say on the outlook for the sale of beef cattle in the valley:

"While the local feeders have been up against a hard game this year, on account of so much beef being sold off the range, those that are able to hold on will find they will make good money by doing so. Good steers from yearlings up should bring four cents and up and cows three and a quarter. The supply is practically exhausted on the ranges and California is undergoing the worst drought in years, cattle by the hundreds dying off. This will compel the California butchers to buy from Phoenix, and as statistics show that this valley ordinarily furnishes from thirty to fifty per cent of the beef of southern California, it will undoubtedly furnish from 75 to 80 per cent this spring.

If the feeders will only hold off for better prices they will find they will gain much thereby. We are in much better shape in regard to feed than any district in California and when we figure that California feeders have to pay $15 to $20 per ton for hay just to keep the stock alive we can readily see just where we are at.

The supply in Texas is very limited.

Around Fort Worth there are probably 2000 head of fat cattle, in the neighborhood of Abilene about 5000 head, at San Antonio about 3000 head; and they won't be fat for three or four months yet. This is just a drop in the bucket, and when we figure that buyers in Texas now are paying six bits, we can be assured that with the additional freight rates and feeding enroute steers landed in Los Angeles cost the buyers at least $4.50. It is perfectly easy to say that with a beef famine imminent in California and with a demand from all points in the territory and the local demand of 500 head per week, that during the next two or three months steers will bring at least $4.25 and cows $3.25."

Watch for the Outlaw Horse Show Sunday, January 31.

THE LAW DAY

Motions and Demurrers Passed Upon or Reset.

Among the matters brought before the district court on law day yesterday were the following: In the case of Mae E. Heard and others against William Adams, a divorce decree was granted. In the case of Robert Friedel against Thomas E. Dalton and Thomas King, a motion for judgment on the pleadings granted as to King. In the case of John T. Dunlap, guardian of William Roarke, against O. H. Christy, administrator of the estate of James Roarke, a demurrer to the second amended complaint was sustained. In the case of Libbie Goodwin and others against P. L. Sherman, a demurrer was ordered stricken from the long calendar. In the case of D. A. Tyrrell against the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Tempe, the hearing of a demurrer was reset for February 6.

Yesterday was the time which had been set for the hearing of the demurrers in the various cases against the north side canal, but they were continued until February 20. In the divorce suit of Chester Blackford against Alice Blackford a motion to strike was granted and the defendant was given twenty days in which to file an answer to the complaint. In the suit of George S. Ford against the S. F. P. & P. railway, in which the plaintiff had been given judgment for damages a stay of execution previously allowed was extended for thirty days. A decree of divorce was granted Annie B. Clark from George W. Clark. The hearing proof was begun in the divorce suit of Dora Zimmerman against Thomas Zimmerman.
